Renovation Update

The month of February saw a lot happening at the library! Land continues to be cleared on 13th Street, and geotechnical engineers have been by twice to dig for soil samples.

Library and city staff are continuing to work with the architects to finalize the interior plans, which will be posted online as soon as they are available.

Be sure to check out the renovation blog, located at www.huntsvillepubliclibrary.blogspot.com, for the latest updates.

YOUNG ADULT

Freefall, Ariela Anhalt

Briar Academy senior Luke is compelled to choose whether or not to stand by the best friend whose reckless behavior may have caused another student's death.

Candor, Pam Bachorz

For a fee, "model teen" Oscar Banks has been secretly and selectively sabotaging the subliminal messages that program the behavior of the residents of Candor, Florida.

JUVENILE

Dragon Kiss, E.D. Baker

Audun, a dragon from the Icy North, encounters obstacles as he pursues the love of his life—a human girl who can transform into a dragon using magic.

Nerds: National Espionage, Rescue, & Defense Society, Michael Buckley

While running a spy network from their elementary school, five unpopular misfits combine their talents and use cutting-edge gadgetry to fight evil around the world.

PICTURE BOOKS

Nanook and Pryce: Gone Fishing, Ned Crowley

Parka-clad friends Nanook and Pryce and their dog Yukon encounter many different types of ocean life and adventure on an unexpected voyage.

Chicken Little, Rebecca Emberley

A retelling of the classic story of Chicken Little, who has an acorn fall on his head and runs in a panic to his friends Henny Penny, Lucky Ducky, and Loosey Goosey, to tell them the sky is falling.

My Heart is Like a Zoo, Michael Hall

Depicts in rhyming text how love can be many different things, such as eager as a beaver, steady as a yak, or silly as a seal.

Spotlight On: A to Z World Culture

What is A to Z World Culture?

A to Z World Culture offers a wealth of information on 175 different countries from around the globe, including places such as Argentina, India, Switzerland, Fiji, and many more. Specific categories of information include points of interest, money, health notes, business culture, and locations of embassies and consulates, as well as general cultural information.

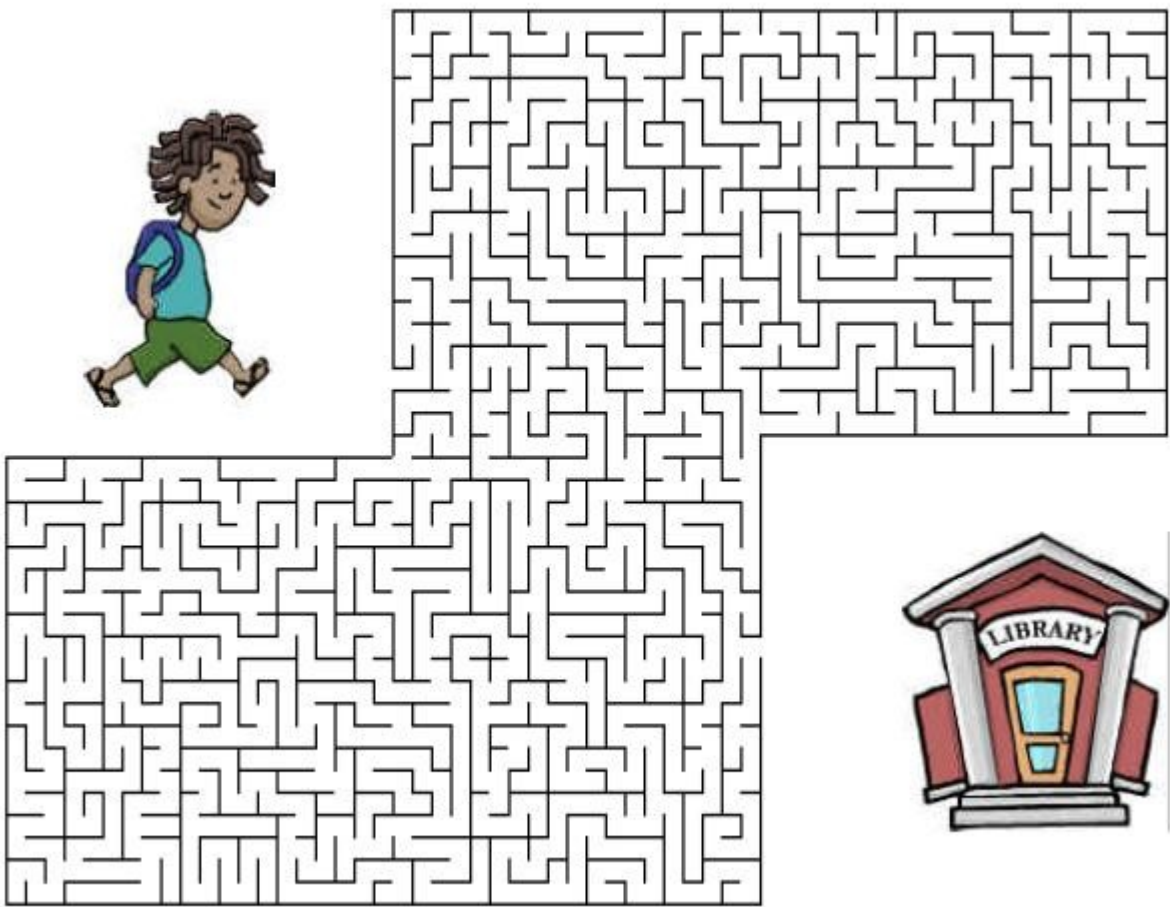

Who should use it?

The database is particularly useful for travelers. It can help you plan what sights to see when you visit and make you aware of any cultural differences or health concerns you should know about before going. However, anyone interested in different facets of the many countries of the world will also find A to Z World Culture interesting and useful.

How do I use it?

First, visit our website at www.myhuntsvillelibrary.com and click on "Online Databases" from the left menu. Scroll down to the bottom of the page and click on the A to Z World Culture link. If you are accessing the database from one of the library computers, then it should direct you automatically at this point. If you are accessing the database from home, you must click on the link that reads "Library barcode users click here," then type in your library barcode number and click "Submit."
